Psalm 64:1-2, 4-5

Presider Shout for joy to God, all the earth;

Heidelberg Catechism, Lord's Day 10

Presider What dost thou mean by the providence of God?

All-Together The almighty and everywhere present power of God; whereby, as it were by his hand, he upholds and governs heaven, earth, and all creatures; so that herbs and grass, rain and drought, fruitful and barren years, meat and drink, health and sickness, riches and poverty, yea, and all things come, not by chance, but by his fatherly hand.

Presider What advantage is it to us to know that God has created, and by his providence does still uphold all things?

All-Together That we may be patient in adversity; thankful in prosperity; and that in all things, which may hereafter befall us, we place our firm trust in our faithful God and Father, that nothing shall separate us from his love; since all creatures are so in his hand, that without his will they cannot so much as move.

We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare those who confess their

| ASSURANCE OF PARDON Responsive
Psalm 103

Presider The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. As far as the east is from the west, so far the LORD removes our transgression from us.

All-Together Thanks be to God!
